Consignment Policy

Clothing is consigned for 60 days and you receive 40% of the selling price. We set the selling price based on current market trends. Items are subject to discount from day one of contract depending on sales, promotions, etc. Consignors will receive 50% of the selling price for any item that sells for over $200.

A small buyer's fee, paid by the purchaser, will be added to the price tag of each item. That fee does not affect the percentage you receive. The amount of the buyer's fee is based on the selling price.

Items found to be defective (spots, broken zippers) after being taken on consignment may be donated.

All items must be: in perfect (like new) condition and brought in on hangers ironed/wrinkle-free with no lint/hair from a smoke-free home
current clothing styles, not more than 2 years old

We do our very best to safeguard your items, but are not responsible for items that rarely, but unfortunately, become lost, stolen, or damaged. Your items should be insured under your homeowners policy.

Unsold items must be reclaimed by the consignor before the end of the consignment period. You must call to make an appointment to pick up items. It is your responsibility to pick up your clothes. At the end of your contract (60 days) any unsold items become the PROPERTY OF THE STORE AND MAY BE DONATED TO ONE OF SEVERAL LOCAL CHARITIES OR SOLD WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE.

I have read, understand, and agree to all of the above:
